

Index

- advising the Attorney-General, 161-162
- appellate guidance, New Zealand, 182-183
- Auld, Lord Justice, 20, 46, 61
- Auld Report see Report of the Review of Criminal Courts of England and Wales
- Australia, federal sentencing council see federal sentencing council, Australia
- Australian Institute of Criminology survey, findings, 76
- Australian Law Reform Commission, 126
 - federal sentencing council, Australia 200-203
- Same Crime, Same Time: Sentencing of Federal Offenders report, 126-127, 200
- Australian Survey of Social Attitudes, findings, 76-77

- Canadian Sentencing Commission, 21
- “capacity constraint”, 91
- capital punishment see death penalty
- Centre Against Sexual Assault, 167-168, 175
- citizen juries see juries
- community attitudes see public opinion
- community-based sentences, 18, 33
- community consultation
 - see* public consultation
- community education
 - see* public education
- community engagement
 - see* public involvement
- community knowledge of sentencing, 77-79
- community sentences
 - see* community-based sentences
- community values and judicial practice, 16-17
- conceptions of legitimacy, 24
- consultation, 21, 45, 54, 80, 113, 117-118, 122, 160-161
 - see also* focus groups
- consultation papers, 113-14, 118, 121
- councils, government and the public, 9-11
- Court Administration Authority, South Australia, 22
- Court of Appeal, English, 112-114, 116-117, 119-120
- Court of Appeal, New Zealand, 185, 189
- courts
 - crisis of confidence, 45-49, 54-56
 - engendering confidence, 51
 - gender-based violence, 168-170
 - leniency, 69, 75
 - New South Wales Sentencing Council, 128, 130, 134-136
 - populist pressure, 12-24
 - public confidence, 20, 22, 172-173
 - public opinion, 15-17, 19-24, 26-27
 - public sentencing preferences, 75-76
 - public understanding, 47
 - punishment, 88
 - Sentencing Advisory Council, Victoria, 150-157, 159, 162
 - sentencing and community expectations, 46
 - suspended sentences, 176
 - victims’ rights and dignity, 171
- Criminal Justice Act* 2003 (UK), 228, 233, 235
- criminal justice rights, 34
- criminal justice system
 - adverse effects of, 151
 - guiding principles, 170
 - impact on offenders, 80
 - imprisonment, 42
 - institutionalized sexism in, 170
 - jury system, 134
 - lack of public understanding, 73-74
 - legitimacy of, 12
 - media, 13, 74
 - men’s violence against women, 168
 - operation of, 9, 154, 157
 - perceived leniency, 69, 72
 - problems in, 170
 - problems with, New Zealand, 11

INDEX

- public confidence, 5-6, 12, 14, 47, 50, 225, 227-228, 230
- public knowledge, 73-74, 157
- public opinion, 69, 118, 153
- public participation, 68-69, 103, 107
- public understanding, 47, 160
- punitive, 60
- reform of, 32, 47, 72
- relations between key players, 13
- responses to the public, 20, 25
- sentencing reform, 90
- shifts in responsibility, 206-207, 219
- transparency and accountability, 153
- victims, 32, 49, 68, 151, 167
- crisis of confidence, 45-62,
 - Australia and New Zealand, 48-50
 - courts, 45, 55-56
 - England and Wales, 46-48
 - media, 54, 56-57
 - populism, 46, 48-49, 55, 56-61
 - potential solutions, 59t
 - public consultation, 47-49, 51, 58, 60
 - responses to, 46-50
 - social and political dimensions, 54-57
- crisis of legitimacy
 - see* crisis of confidence
- custodial sentencing, 141-146
- custody rates see prison populations

- death penalty, 19, 52, 97
- deliberative polls
 - see* polls; public opinion research
- democratisation of the news media, 3
- democratisation of sentencing policy, 58-60
- development of sentencing policy, 68-69, 149, 158, 161-163
 - effectiveness of
 - institutionalised public participation, 224-238
 - formal public participation, 68-69, 81
 - institutional mechanisms for public involvement, 68, 205-221
 - penal populism, 69
 - public involvement, 6
 - public opinion, 158
 - review of, 149
 - role of the public, 68
 - distribution of authority
 - over sentencing, 207-210
 - political legitimacy, 207
 - strengths and weaknesses, 209
- drivers of sentencing policy and public opinion, 225-228
 - cost and cost effectiveness, 227
 - penal populism, 226-227

- early release, 138-142, 145-146, 151
- English sentencing guidelines, 112-123
 - Court of Appeal, 112-114, 116-117, 119-120
 - Crime and Disorder Act* 1998 (UK), 112
 - Criminal Justice Act* 2003 (UK), 113-114
 - formulating guidelines and the role of the public, 116-119
 - House of Commons Justice Committee, 121
 - media influence, 121
 - political context, 112, 119
 - position of the judiciary, 119-120
 - Sentencing Advisory Panel (UK), 112-122
 - Sentencing Guidelines Council (UK), 112-122
- European Court of Human Rights, 226-227
- evolving role of public opinion, 20-24
- expert advice, 79-80

- federal sentencing council, Australia, 200-203
 - Australian Law Reform Commission recommendations, 202
 - establishment of, 200-201
 - functions of, 201
 - issues and problems, 201-202
- feminist judges, 171
- feminist services, 168
- focus groups, 54, 69, 71-72, 77, 79-81, 205, 212-213, 216
- foreign prisoners, 231-232

- gauging public opinion
 - see* measuring public opinion
- gender-based violence, 165-172, 174-177
 - human rights, 167, 172

- gender-based violence (cont)
 - law reform, 168-171
 - power of the law, 166-173
 - prevention of, 166-167, 172, 176-177
 - rehabilitation, 165, 171
 - sentencing policy, 165-166
- generating informed public judgment
 - dissemination of information, 213
 - proposals for, 213
- globalisation, 35
 - effects of, 3
- guideline judgments, 112-114, 117, 120, 129-131, 133, 135-136, 155-156, 182-183, 186, 189
- guilty pleas, 25, 78-79 117-118, 122, 142

- Halliday Report see Making Punishment Work: Report of a Review of the Sentencing Framework for England and Wales
- Home Office Review of Sentencing Report see Making Punishment Work: Report of a Review of the Sentencing Framework for England and Wales
- Human Rights Act* 1998 (UK), 226
- human rights and penal policy, 226

- impact of public opinion on sentencing practice
 - individual sentencing decisions, 15-16
 - sentencing patterns, 16-17
 - sentencing policies, 17-19
- imprisonment, 56, 119-120, 151, 153
 - see also* prison populations
- institutionalised public participation
 - see* public involvement

- judges 149-151, 153, 155, 158-159, 169-170
 - access to previous High Court decisions, Scotland, 144
 - conservatism of, 120
 - development of sentencing guidelines, New Zealand, 186
 - early release, 142
 - guidelines and severity of sentencing, 120
 - guidelines, Minnesota, 86-88
 - guidelines, Scotland, 142
 - judicial discretion, 55, 62
 - judicial system, Minnesota, 85
 - jury directions, 169-170
 - lay judges, 26, 217, 219
 - media, 16, 23
 - public confidence, 213
 - public opinion, 15-17, 23-27, 135
 - Sentencing Advisory Council, 112, 115
 - sentencing authority, 208
 - sentencing decision within a regulatory framework, 208
 - Sentencing Guidelines Council (UK), 114, 118
 - sentencing guidelines, 119-120
 - sentencing, pre Guidelines, United States, 104
 - surveys of, 15, 26
 - United States Sentencing Commission, 103, 105, 107-108
- judicial discretion, 55, 62, 155, 20, 233
 - sentencing guidelines, 216-219
- judicial guidance, New Zealand, 180, 182, 185
- judicial independence, 24
- judicial officers see judiciary
- judicial practice and community values, 17
- judicial registry, 23
- Judicial Studies Board, 149-150, 152
- judiciary
 - accountability, 14
 - Advisory Panel on Sentencing in Scotland, 144
 - balancing interest with the public, politicians, and media, 2
 - community outreach, 25
 - crisis in confidence, 55
 - open engagement, 12
 - public confidence, 6, 237
 - public mood, New Zealand, 11, 189
 - public sentencing preferences, 75-76
 - sentencing guidelines, 119-120
 - surveys, 15
 - under increasing public attack, 2
- juries, 26, 169
- jurors see juries
- jury system, 134
- Justice for All White Paper, 46

INDEX

- lay judges, 217, 219
- lay magistrates, 26
- lay members, 138, 214-215
- legitimation
 - blame shifting or policy buffer, 12-13
- levels of imprisonment
 - see* prison populations
- “liberal” penal developments, 212
- liberal reformers, 55, 58, 60

- Making Punishment Work. Report of a Review of the Sentencing Framework for England and Wales, 20, 21, 46, 228
- Making Sentencing Clearer Consultation Paper, 47,
- mandatory sentencing, 3, 6, 10, 23, 48, 54-55
- meaning of public participation, 214-216
- measuring public opinion, 6-7, 51-54, 69-81, 131, 145, 150, 152-154, 158-159, 212
- measuring public preferences see measuring public opinion
- media
 - changes in structure, 37
 - court judgments, 46
 - coverage of the Minnesota Sentencing Guideline Commission, 83-85, 92-93, 95-97
 - crisis in confidence, 54, 56-59
 - democratisation of, 3, 37-38
 - deregulation, 37-39
 - judicial leniency, 6, 25, 233-234
 - measure of public impact, 146
 - misconceptions, 235
 - misreporting, 3
 - naming and shaming, 23, 232
 - negative media coverage, 16-18, 23
 - new information technology, 37
 - penal populism, 36, 60
 - power of scandal, 40-4
 - public disenchantment with sentencing and sentencers, 27
 - sentencing guideline system, 121, 123
 - sentencing reform, 61
- Minnesota Sentencing Guidelines Commission, 83-100
 - defining “public”, 84
 - dissemination of information, 83, 93, 95
 - Dru Sjodin case, 96-97
 - evolution of the guidelines, 83, 87, 92-93
 - formal roles of public members, 93-94
 - guideline development and public opinion, 89-90
 - legislative purposes of, 88-89
 - media coverage, 83-85, 92-93, 95-97
 - members, 90-94, 96, 99-100
 - political and social context, 85-86
 - prescriptive changes to sentencing policy, 90-91
 - public knowledge of sentencing issues, 83, 95
 - public opinion, 83-84, 89-90, 93, 95-97, 99-100
 - role of the public in Commission meetings, 83, 92-95, 99,
 - scope and operation of, 84
 - sentencing laws, 86
- Myths and Misconceptions: Public Opinion versus Public Judgment about Sentencing, 159

- naming and shaming, 23, 232
 - penalties, 34
- national sentencing database, 202
 - establishment of, 202
 - research function of, 202
- negative media coverage, 16, 18
- New South Wales Law Reform Commission, 22
- New South Wales Sentencing Council, 22, 49, 126-146
 - Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act* 1999, 126-127, 130-131, 133
 - Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Amendment (Standard Minimum Sentencing) Act* 2002, 126
 - Crimes and Courts Legislation Amendment Act* 2006, 131
 - establishment of, 126-127, 130
 - functions and operations, 129-134
 - members, 128-129
 - public education, 130-131
 - publications, 128-133, 135-136
 - relationship with the courts, 134-135

- New Zealand Law Commission, 22, 179
 Sentencing Guidelines and Parole Reform report, 179
 recommendations, 179
- New Zealand, proposed sentencing council see proposed sentencing council, New Zealand
- Office for the Management of Federal Offenders, 202
 establishment of, 202
 advice function of, 202
- ontological insecurity, 3, 36
- parole, 18, 21-22, 25, 31, 34, 39, 42, 50, 52, 73, 86, 88-90, 97-98 boards, 42, 55, 68
 policies, 50
- penal authority, changes to, 3
 “penal firestorm”, preconditions for, 234-235
- penal policy in New Zealand, 39-42
- penal politics, 234-235
- penal populism, 23, 31-42, 46, 48-49, 57, 59-60, 69, 82
 causes and effects of, 32-38
 drivers of sentencing policy, 225-227
see also populism
- policy buffers, 12-13, 24, 58, 82
- policy process, role of Victorian public, 149-150
- political disenchantment, 35, 38, 205-20
- political judgment, 227
- politics, public involvement and sentencing policy development, 58-62
- polls, 20, 23, 32, 52, 69, 108, 158 deliberative, 53, 70-72, 205, 212-213, 216
 media, 69-70
 representative, 72
- populism, 55-57, 59, 61
see also penal populism
- populist pressure and courts, 23-24
 “populist punitiveness”, 3, 69, 205, 212
- power of scandal, 39-42
 media, 41
 penal policy in New Zealand, 39-42
- principles and purpose of sentencing, 139-140, 180-181, 193, 228
- prison and probation, reform, 229 services, 229
- prison conditions, 41-42
 overcrowding, New Zealand, 184
- prison, high cost of, 227
- prison populations controlling growth of, 99
 crisis of confidence, 55
 impact of shifts in sentencing patterns in New Zealand, 180, 181 increases, 3-4, 32, 34, 93, 140 low rates, 85-86
 media, 17
 monitoring rates of, 153
 monitoring the impact of sentencing guidelines on, United States, 220 persons remanded in custody, 142 private prisons, 151
 projections, 91, 98
 public opinion, 15-16
 reduction of, 42
 trends in, 157
- probation, 230
- proposed sentencing council, New Zealand, 49-50, 179-190
 functions of, 179
 members, 186
 New Zealand Law Commission recommendations, 179
- proposed sentencing council, South Africa, 191-199 determining the value of fine units, 196-197 development of community penalties, 197 education and information, 198 functions, 195
 guideline judgments, 198
 members, 194-195
 motivation for the establishment of, 193-194 research and publishing, 197 role of the public opinion, 197
 sentencing guidelines, 195-196, 199
- public attitudes
see public opinion

INDEX

- public confidence, 5-7, 27, 127-129, 133, 135, 142-143
 - criminal justice system, 225, 227-228, 230
 - guideline judgments, 213
 - judges and courts, 205, 213
 - judiciary, 237
- public consultation, 47-49, 51, 58, 60, 131-132, 135-136, 165, 173, 187, 203, 213
- public debate
 - see* public consultation
- public discussion
 - see* public consultation
- public education, 25, 49-50, 54-56, 58, 130-131, 159-160, 163, 166, 174
- public engagement see public involvement
- public influence on punishment
 - policies, 17
- public involvement, 24-25, 45, 134, 174
 - in sentencing institutions, 212-216
 - institutionalised, 68-69,
 - sentencing policy, 50, 205-221
 - sentencing reform, 50-54
 - strategies for, 50-54
- public judgment, 213
- public mood, 31, 33, 42, 49
 - sentencing patterns in New Zealand, 181
- “public opinion”,
 - meaning of the term, 31
- public opinion
 - drivers of sentencing policy, 225-228
 - evolving role of, 20-24
 - ill-informed, 235
 - impact on sentencing law, 3
 - informed, 131-133, 135, 153, 158-159, 212
 - proposed role of, South Africa, 197
 - punitive, 149
 - relationship between politics and development of sentencing policy, 158
 - research techniques, 205
 - sentencing institutions, 212
 - sentencing policy and practice, 15-27
 - shift toward greater responsiveness to, 225
 - sociological significance of, 31
- public opinion and policy development
 - case study, England and Wales, 228-234
- public opinion research 15-19, 23-25, 31-33, 35, 42, 104-105, 107-108, 113, 117-118, 168, 173
 - see also* measuring public opinion
- public participation
 - see* public involvement
- public protection, 140-143
- punishment
 - capital, 19, 97
 - courts, 88
 - crisis of confidence, 54-55
 - effective, 228
 - gender-based violence, 13
 - increases in, 108
 - interest groups, 219
 - media, 3, 17, 37, 206, 232, 234
 - misinformed public, 60
 - politicians, 221
 - principles of, 4, 171
 - public opinion, 16-17, 21, 32-34, 47, 57, 76, 78, 158, 205-206, 212, 221
 - purposes of, 89-9
 - quantum of, 179-180, 217
 - rational administration of, 210
 - recidivism, 171-172
 - Sentencing Commission for Scotland
 - recommendations, 141
 - severity of, 227
 - views on, 218-219
 - young offenders, 201
- punishment policies, 17, 19, 21
 - victims, 16
- punitive
 - criminal justice system, 60, 74
 - penal policy, 69, 73
 - public, 69, 73, 75, 79, 81-82, 149, 212
 - sentencing, 81, 205
 - sentencing policy, 69
- punitive legislation and political
 - climate, 220
- punitiveness, 76
 - levels of, 73, 75
- rape see sexual offences
- referendum, New Zealand, 32, 49-50, 57, 180, 189-190
 - government responses to, 180-181

- referendum, New Zealand (cont)
 - public response to, 189
 - results of, 190
- rehabilitation, 41, 78, 88-89
- relationships
 - between public opinion, politics and development of sentencing policy, 158
 - between sentencing institutions and legislatures, 210-212
- Report of the Review of Criminal Courts of England and Wales, 46, 61
- research, undertaking, 157-158
- Rethinking Crime and Punishment project, 46, 236-237
- rising crime rates, 23
- roundtable/focus group discussions
 - see* focus groups

- Scottish Parliament, 20
- Scottish Sentencing Commission see Sentencing Commission of Scotland
- Sensible Sentencing Trust, 39
- sentence lengths and media-driven public demands, 17
- sentence reductions
 - see* sentencing discount
- Sentencing Act* 1991 (Vic), 149-150, 153-155, 157-158, 162
- sentencing advisory bodies, 45-49, 54, 60-62, 126
 - establishment of, 1-2, 7-8
 - functions of, 8
 - members, 22
- Sentencing Advisory Council Victoria, 49, 68, 79-82, 148-163
 - as a mechanism for mediation, 173
 - consultation strategy, 80-81
 - creation of, 153-155
 - functions of, 22, 153-162
 - guiding principles of, 155
 - members, 154
 - potential to promote respect and equality for women, 165-177
 - public opinion research
 - methodology, 80-81
 - recommendation for, 152-153
 - terms of reference, 151, 157
- Sentencing Advisory Panel (UK)
 - Court of Appeal, 112
 - creation of, 46, 112, 119
 - Crime and Disorder Act* 1998 (UK), 112
 - Criminal Justice Act* 2003 (UK), 113-114
 - draft sentencing guidelines, 9
 - functions of, 9
 - guidelines, 114-115
 - judiciary, 119
 - members, 68, 112, 160, 214
 - public engagement, 216, 235
 - public opinion, 21-22, 68
- Sentencing Commission of Scotland, 69, 132, 138-146
 - appointed membership, 138
 - impact of, 145
 - media, 145
 - reports, 140-146
 - recommendations, 139-146
 - remit, 139
 - working practices, 139-140
- sentencing as a “legal” decision, 218-219
- sentencing commissions, United States, 1, 7-8, 69, 83-100, 103-109, 120, 122
- sentencing councils, 2, 126, 132
 - emergence of, 2
 - functions of, 2
 - penal populism, 13-14
- sentencing decisions
 - impact of public opinion, 15, 19
 - regulatory framework, 208-209
 - Roe v Wade, 19
- sentencing discounts, 25, 29, 116-117, 122
- sentencing grids, 86-87, 97-98, 107
- Sentencing Guidelines Council (UK)
 - creation of, 46,
 - functions of, 9
 - guidelines, 11, 113, 186-187
 - judiciary, 119
 - members, 8, 68, 115, 214
 - public engagement, 235
 - public opinion, 68
 - relations between key players, 237
 - sentencing, 233

INDEX

- sentencing guideline systems, 21, 83-100, 113, 118-120, 121
- sentencing guidelines
 - adherence or departure from, 220
 - Advisory Panel on Sentencing, Scotland, 144
 - authority to develop, 210-211
 - English, public and political context, 112-123
 - impact on correctional budgets, 220
 - impact on prison populations, 220
 - judges, 119-120
 - judicial body, 114
 - judicial discretion, 216-219
 - judicial input, New Zealand, 186-187
 - Judicial Studies Board, 149-150
 - New Zealand, 185-187
 - sentencing bodies, 1-2, 5-6, 8-11, 13
 - Sentencing Guidelines Council (UK), 46, 48, 68, 112-122, 186-187
 - South Africa, 195-196, 198
 - United States, 21, 83-100, 103-109
 - Victorian Sentencing Review, 150-151
- sentencing institutions
 - development of, 207
 - effective sentencing policy, 219
 - judicial discretion and public participation, 216-218
 - lay members, 214-215
 - legitimizing and the management of correctional resources, 219-220
 - measuring the effectiveness of, 220-221
 - new generation of, 206
 - public involvement, 235
 - public opinion and participation, 212-216
 - public understanding of sentencing, 236
- sentencing law
 - gender-based violence, 166-170
 - prevention of gender-based violence, 170-171
 - structure of, Minnesota, 84, 86, 93
- sentencing patterns
 - impact of public opinion, 16-17
 - shifts in, New Zealand, 181
- sentencing policy
 - accountable and transparent, 45, 58, 59
 - case study, England and Wales
 - democratisation of, 58
 - drivers of, 225-228
 - gender-based violence, 165-166
 - impact of public opinion, 17-19
 - public participation, 45-47, 50-54, 58-62, 205
 - see also* development of sentencing policy
- sentencing policy and practice, public opinion, 15-27
- sentencing policy shifts, 18-19
- sentencing reform, 10, 20, 45-46, 50, 54, 61, 85, 89-90, 103, 105
- sentencing reform, England and Wales, 228-229, 233
- sentencing reform, New Zealand, 179-190
 - background to, 180-181
 - options for, 185-189
 - public participation, 50-54
- sentencing reform, South Africa, 191-199
- sentencing structure, New Zealand
 - consistency of, lack of, 183
 - current problems, 182-185
 - inadequate judicial guidance, 182-183
 - issues of cost effectiveness, 184-185
 - legislative input, lack of, 182
 - numerical guidance, 185
 - sentence severity levels, unpredictability of, 184
 - transparency, lack of, 183-184
- sentencing system, South Africa
 - early release, 192-193
 - imprisonment alternatives, 192
 - inconsistency in sentences, 193
 - levels of punishment, 192
 - treatment of offenders, 192
- sentencing trends in New Zealand, 181
 - effects on prison population, 181
- serious offenders, 162
- sex offenders, 41, 87, 94, 96-98, 100, 162, 168, 170-171, 173, 175, 177
 - newspaper articles, 96
 - notification, 69
 - proposed sentencing grid, 87, 98
 - registration, 23, 98
 - sentencing, 95, 97-98

- sexual offences, 165, 167-171, 174
- South Africa, proposed sentencing council see proposed sentencing council, South Africa
- South African Law (Reform) Commission
 - research methods, 191-192
 - Sentencing (A New Sentencing Framework) Report, 191
 - Sentencing Framework Bill, 191, 193-194, 199
 - sentencing reform proposals, 191, 193-199
- statistical information, 156-157
- submissions, 54, 80
- supervision in the community, 230-231
- surveying see surveys
- surveys, 173, 216
 - design of, 51-52
 - judges, 5, 15-16, 75
 - media, 173
 - methods, 69-72, 81, 221
 - offenders, 80, 160
 - public confidence, 213
 - public opinion, 21-23, 27, 32, 36, 32-36, 46, 54, 56, 72-74, 75-79, 150, 158, 212
 - violence against women, 168
- survivors see victims
- suspended sentences, 154, 161
- symbolic function of sentencing, 209-210

- “the new punitiveness” see penal populism

- United States Sentencing Commission, 21, 103-109, 152
 - failures of, 103-05
- Federal Sentencing Guidelines, 103-108
 - functions of, 103
 - idea of, 103-05
 - impact on judges, 107
 - members, 104-106
 - public opinion, 104-105, 107-108
 - public participation, 103, 107, 109
 - Sentencing Reform Act* 1984, 21, 103-108
- victim and offender support services, 159
- victim impact statements, 26, 68, 148-150
- victim rights movement, 68, 148, 172
- victims, 25-26, 148, 150-151, 155, 157, 159, 161
 - advocates, 80, 151, 165-166
 - groups, 71, 77, 152, 154, 159-160
 - input into sentencing, 25-26
 - media, 37-38
 - of crime, 34, 148, 154, 159-161
 - of gender-based violence, 165-166
 - of sexual assault, 162, 168-169
 - representatives, 71, 148, 154, 160
- victims’ movement
 - see* victim rights movement
- Victorian Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders, 80
- Victorian Community Council Against Violence, 77-79, 150
- Victorian Law Reform Commission, 151, 157-158, 161, 165, 168-169, 173
- Victorian Sentencing Advisory Council see Sentencing Advisory Council Victoria
- Victorian Sentencing Committee, 149, 155
- Victorian Sentencing Review 2002, 150-151