

Acknowledgments

Our gratitude goes to our colleagues in international dispute resolution and thousands of students at our respective Law Schools over the last decade; to our respective firms; and to the professional organisations we have been involved with – ACICA (especially past and present Arbitration Rules Committee members) as well as CIArb – Australia, AFIA and the ICC Young Arbitrators Forum. We are very grateful to Wan Sang Lung for his fine editorial and research assistance. We also appreciate the professional, efficient and good-natured support of Chris Holt and the team at The Federation Press.

Several chapters of this book have been edited and updated from the following articles, with kind permission of the respective publishers:

- Chapter 2: Garnett R, 'International Commercial Arbitration in Australia: Legal Framework and Problems' (2008) 19(4) Australasian Dispute Resolution Journal 249 (published by Thomson Reuters).
- Chapter 3: Garnett R and Pryles M, 'Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Awards under the New York Convention in Australia and New Zealand' (2008) 25(6) Journal of International Arbitration 899 (published by Kluwer Law International).
- Chapter 4: Greenberg S, 'ACICA's New International Arbitration Rules' (2006) 23(2) Journal of International Arbitration 189.
- Chapter 8: Nottage L and Garnett R, 'Top 20 Things to Change In or Around Australia's International Arbitration Act' (2010) 6(1) Asian International Arbitration Journal 1 (published by the Singapore International Arbitration Centre).
- Chapter 10: Nottage L and Miles K, '“Back to the Future” for Investor-State Arbitration: Revising Rules in Australia and Japan for Public Interests' (2009) 26(1) Journal of International Arbitration 25.

Notes on Contributors

Editors

Dr Luke Nottage (BCA, LLB, PhD, VUW; LLM, Kyoto) is Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law at the University of Sydney (Sydney Law School), founding Co-Director of the Australian Network for Japanese Law (<http://sydney.edu.au/law/anjel>), and Program Director (Comparative and Global Law) at the Sydney Centre for International Law (<http://sydney.edu.au/law/scil>). He lectures, writes and consults world-wide in the fields of contract law, product liability and safety regulation, civil dispute resolution (especially arbitration), corporate governance, and cyber-law, mostly comparing developments in Japan or transnationally. Luke has produced seven books and over 100 chapters or major articles, mostly in English and Japanese, and contributes to three looseleaf commentaries. Luke serves on the Rules Committee of the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA), has lectured and written for the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb), and was a founding member of the Australasian Forum for International Arbitration (AFIA). Since 1990 Luke has worked closely with law firms and companies in New Zealand, Japan, Australia and the US in cross-border dispute resolution and transaction planning, and he is a founding Director of Japanese Law Links Pty Ltd.

Professor Richard Garnett (BA, LLB, UNSW; LLM, Harv) is a Professor at the Melbourne Law School, the University of Melbourne, researching and teaching in private international law and international dispute resolution. He has published books and articles in major international journals in these fields, a number of which have been cited by leading international tribunals such as the European Court of Human Rights and US federal courts. Professor Garnett has also acted as legal adviser and counsel in many matters before Australian and international tribunals and is currently a consultant to the law firm Freehills. He serves on the ACICA Rules Committee, which drafted the 2005 Arbitration Rules and 2008 Expedited Arbitration Rules. Professor Garnett has also been a member of the Australian delegation to the Hague Conference on Private International Law (Convention on Choice of Court Agreements), an adviser to the American Law Institute in its project on transnational intellectual property adjudication, and co-rapporteur on the International Law Association (ILA) project on transnational group actions.

Contributors

Professor James Crawford SC, FBA, LLD, is Director of the Lauterpacht Centre, University of Cambridge, Whewell Professor of International Law and a Fellow of Jesus College. He was a Member of the United Nations International Law Commission from 1992-2001 and Special Rapporteur on State Responsibility (1997-2001). In addition to scholarly work on statehood, self-determination, collective rights and international responsibility, he has appeared frequently before the International Court of Justice including in the Advisory Opinions on Nuclear Weapons (1996) and the Israeli Wall/Barrier (2004). He has also appeared before other international tribunals, and is actively engaged as an international arbitrator. Before his appointment to Cambridge in 1992, he held Chairs in Law at Adelaide and Sydney, and was a member (1982-90) of the Australian Law Reform Commission. He is a member of the New South Wales and English bars, and was one of the founding members of Matrix Chambers, London (2000).

The Honourable Justice Clyde Croft (BEC, LLB, LLM, Monash; PhD, Cambridge) is a judge of the Commercial Court in the Victorian Supreme Court and also manages its commercial arbitration list, domestic and international. He was appointed Senior Counsel in 2000, having practised extensively in property and commercial law and was an arbitrator and mediator in property, construction and commercial disputes, domestically and internationally. He was an Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators (IAMA) Grade 1 Arbitrator (the highest grading), a member of the IAMA Australian and international panel of commercial arbitrators, a member of ACICA (serving on the Rules Committee from 2004-2009), the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) and the Asia Pacific Regional Arbitration Group (APRAG) panels of international arbitrators. He represented APRAG at the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) International Arbitration Working Group Sessions from 2005 until 2010. Justice Croft is also a Life Fellow of IAMA and a Judicial Fellow of AMINZ. He was a Fellow of the CIArb and a member of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA). He was the IAMA National President (1997-2000) and was an IAMA National Councillor and IAMA Vice-President until his appointment. Justice Croft was the Treasurer, a Director and a Fellow of ACICA. He was an accredited mediator under the Australian National Mediator Accreditation System (and a Victorian Bar and IAMA Accredited Mediator) and a Sessional Member, Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal. He is the author, or co-author, of leading texts in the property, equity, leasing, securities and commercial law fields and of numerous articles and conference papers on commercial arbitration (domestic and international) and property and commercial law subjects. Justice Croft is an Adjunct Professor of Law, Deakin University, Melbourne.

Jonathon DeBoos (BSc, Grad Dip Biotech, Melb; LLB (Hons), Deakin) is a lawyer in the International Arbitration Group and Construction & Major Projects Group of Clayton Utz. During his time at Clayton Utz, Jonathon has worked on arbitrations under the ICC, ICSID, DIAC and SIAC arbitration rules on disputes relating to major infrastructure projects, commercial property, power plants and foreign investment. Since 2006 Jonathon has served as the Deputy Secretary-General of ACICA and on the Executive Committee of AFIA. Jonathon is also a member of the ACICA Rules Committee.

Björn Gehle is a Special Counsel in the International Arbitration Group of Clayton Utz. With over 10 years of experience in International Arbitration Björn has advised and represented clients in disputes throughout Asia, Europe, Africa, the Middle East and Australia. He is a founding executive member and co-chair of AFIA, a member of the Global Advisory Board of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution in New York (ICDR Y&I) and a Special Associate of ACICA, on its Rules Committee. He is recognised as one of Australia's leading practitioners in International Arbitration in the Euromoney Guide to the World's Leading Experts in Arbitration 2009 and 2010 and has published widely in the field of international arbitration.

Simon Greenberg received the Supreme Court Prize for graduating top of law at Deakin University in Melbourne and also holds a post-graduate degree (LLM equivalent) in private international law from the University of Paris II, Assas-Panthéon. He is currently the Deputy Secretary General of the ICC International Court of Arbitration and previously practiced international arbitration with Dechert LLP, Paris, and other firms in Paris and Australia. Simon formerly served as the Deputy Secretary General of ACICA and as the first Secretary to APRAG. He also lectured and chaired international arbitration in the advanced law studies department at Deakin University. Simon currently lectures at the Institute of Political Science of Paris (Sciences Po) and the University of Aix-Marseille. He has published numerous articles on international arbitration, and co-authored (with Romesh Weeramantry and Christopher Kee) International Commercial Arbitration: An Asia-Pacific Perspective (Cambridge University Press, 2010).

Dr Christopher Kee (LLB, BA (Hons), Deakin; Grad Dip Laws, UQ; Dr iur, Basel) is a Senior Researcher on the Global Sales Law Project, Universität Basel and an Adjunct Professor at the City University of Hong Kong. He is a Barrister and Solicitor of the High Court of Australia and the Supreme Courts of Victoria and New South Wales, specialising in international arbitration and international sales law. Christopher was a member of the ACICA Rules Committee from 2004-7 and (ad hoc) from 2010, and is a founding executive member and former Co-Chair of AFIA. He has published widely and is regularly invited to speak at conferences and deliver guest lectures. As an experienced moot court coach Christopher conducts professional advocacy training courses for both native and non-native English speakers. His book The Art of Argument – A Guide to Mooting (Oxford University Press, 2006) has been sold worldwide to great acclaim. Christopher recently completed a comparative analysis of validity in sales law for his Doctoral thesis, under the supervision of Professor Ingeborg Schwenzer. Before his current appointments Christopher lectured on a variety of subjects, including international commercial arbitration, at Deakin University, where he has since been made an Honorary Fellow.

Mark Mangan (BC, UNSW; LLB, UTS; LLM, Cambridge) is a Senior Associate in Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer (UK) LLP's International Arbitration Group in London. Mark is an established figure in the international arbitration market and has acted as counsel in over 20 international commercial, investment treaty and sports arbitrations and has been appointed as arbitrator under the ICC, LCIA and SCC rules. Mr Mangan was awarded the University Medal for having graduated with the highest marks in his law degree (UTS), completed his LLM at the University of Cambridge on the Cambridge Commonwealth Trust scholarship, is admitted to practise law in England, Wales and Australia, and has had published a number of articles, presented at numerous seminars and conferences and lectured on international arbitration to Masters students in Sydney, London, Paris, Madrid and Stockholm.

Kate Miles (BA, LLB, LLM (Hons I), Auckland; LLM, NYU) is a Senior Lecturer in international law in the Faculty of Law at the University of Sydney, where she recently completed her PhD in Law focused on international investment law. She has published work on international investment law, sustainable finance, and the regulation of corporate conduct under international law. She is also a Legal Research Fellow of the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law, Montreal, Canada. In 2009, she was appointed to the ILA's New Study Group on the Role of Soft Law Instruments in International Investment Law. Kate has participated in UNCTAD's ad hoc Experts Group Meeting on International Investment Agreements. She coordinates the Investment Network established by the Society of International Economic Law. She has been awarded a Visiting Fellowship at the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge, for the period July–December 2010. She was the recipient of the Geoffrey Powell Prize and the Gary Davies Medal as an undergraduate at the University of Auckland and an Australian Postgraduate Award to pursue her doctorate at the University of Sydney. She has also practiced in leading commercial law firms in Auckland and Sydney, including at Allens Arthur Robinson.

Professor Michael Pryles (LLB, LL.D, Melb; LLM/SJD, SMU; PhD, Bond) is one of the leading arbitrators in the Asia/Pacific Region, and has been ranked in the top 20 arbitration specialists in the world. He has sat as an arbitrator in over 200 cases in Asia, Europe, North America and Australia, and has experience of both ad hoc and institutional commercial arbitrations under the UNCITRAL, ICC, LCIA, SIAC, HKIAC, CIETAC, SCC, JCAA, KLRCA and Swiss Rules, and investor-state arbitrations under the ICSID Rules, the ICSID Additional Facility Rules and the UNCITRAL Rules (BITs, NAFTA and state investor protection laws). Michael has published extensively. Previously he was a partner in a major Australian law firm and before that he held a named chair in Australia's largest law school. He has also held numerous international appointments. Michael is currently Chairman of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and was formerly Commissioner with the United Nations Compensation Commission, President of the ACICA and foundation President of APRAG.

The Honourable James Spigelman AC was appointed as Chief Justice of New South Wales and Lieutenant Governor in 1998. He holds Arts and Law degrees from the University of Sydney. From 1972 he was Senior Advisor and Principal Private Secretary to Prime Minister Whitlam, before being appointed as Permanent Secretary of the Department of Media in 1975. He served as a member of the Australian Law Reform Commission then commenced practice at the New South Wales Bar in 1980. He was appointed as Queen's Counsel in 1986 and Acting Solicitor General of New South Wales in 1997. Before his appointment as Chief Justice, he was on the boards of a range of public institutions devoted to the arts and education. He is the author of Secrecy (1972), Becket and Henry (2004), Statutory Interpretation and Human Rights (2008) and co-author of The Nuclear Barons (1981). A collection of his addresses is published as Speeches of a Chief Justice: James Spigelman 1998-2008 (2008). He is married with three children.

Romesh Weeramantry (BA, LLB, Monash; LLM, London) is an Associate Professor at the City University of Hong Kong. He is completing his PhD thesis on investment treaty arbitration at the Queen Mary School of International Arbitration, University of London. His professional experience includes work in international arbitration, dispute resolution and public international law at the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal (The Hague), the United Nations Compensation Commission (Geneva) and at a leading Swiss law firm. He has also practiced as a barrister at the Victorian Bar. Additionally, as an independent consultant he has provided several legal opinions on public international law and has worked with international organisations including UNCTAD and UNITAR. He has published in a variety of law journals including the American Journal of International Law, is a contributor to the Oxford University Press investment claims database, and co-authored International Commercial Arbitration: An Asia-Pacific Perspective (Cambridge University Press, 2010). He has been a Special Associate and Rules Committee member for ACICA and was a founding Chair of AFIA. He has designed and taught courses on international commercial and investment arbitration at various Asia-Pacific universities.

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

List of Tables and Figures

Tables

Chapter 1, Appendix I Numbers of ICA Cases (1998-2009)	32
Chapter 1, Appendix II Comparing the 1976 UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules	34
Chapter 5, Appendix A ACICA's Administration Fees	115
Chapter 5, Appendix II Comparison of Timelines Under Various Sets of Expedited Rules	119
Chapter 6, Numbers of Parties, Seats of ICC Arbitration and Arbitrators from South East Asia/Oceania and Australia	123
Chapter 9, Appendix I Australia's FTAs with an Investment Chapter	219
Chapter 9, Appendix II Australia's BITS	220

Figures

1 Numbers of ICA cases administered by the world's major arbitral institutions	10
2 Growth rates for ICA cases administered by Asia-Pacific arbitral institutions	11

Abbreviations

AAA	American Arbitration Association
ASEAN-ANZ FTA	ASEAN-Australia-New Zealand Free Trade Agreement
ACFTA	Australia-Chile Free Trade Agreement
ACICA	Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration
ACICA Rules	ACICA Arbitration Rules 2005
ADR	Alternative Dispute Resolution
AFIA	Australasian Forum for International Arbitration
AGD	Attorney-General's Department
AIDC	Australian International Disputes Centre
APRAG	Asia Pacific Regional Arbitration Group
ATS	Australian Treaty Series
BIT	Bilateral Investment Treaty
CAA	Commercial Arbitration Act
CAA 2010 (NSW)	Commercial Arbitration Act 2010 (NSW)
CEDR	Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution
CIArb	Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
CIETAC	China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission
CISG	United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods 1980
DIAC	Dubai International Arbitration Centre
DIS	Deutsche Institution für Schiedsgerichtsbarkeit (German Institution of Arbitration)
FTA	Free Trade Agreement
HKIAC	Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre
IAA	International Arbitration Act 1974 (Cth)
IAMA	Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia
IBA	International Bar Association
ICA	International Commercial Arbitration
ICC	International Chamber of Commerce

ABBREVIATIONS

ICDR	International Centre for Dispute Resolution (of the AAA)
ICSID	International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes
IISD	International Institute for Sustainable Development
ILA	International Law Association
ILM	International Legal Materials
ISA	Investor-State Arbitration
JCAA	Japan Commercial Arbitration Association
KCAB	Korean Commercial Arbitration Board
KLRCA	Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration
LCIA	London Court of International Arbitration
LMAA	London Maritime Arbitration Association
MFN	Most Favoured Nation
ML	Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration 1985 (revised 2006)
NAFTA	North American Free Trade Agreement
NSW	New South Wales
NYC	New York Convention on Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards 1958
NZLC	New Zealand Law Commission
PCA	Permanent Court of Arbitration
SAFTA	Singapore-Australia Free Trade Agreement
SIAC	Singapore International Arbitration Centre
TAFTA	Thailand-Australia Free Trade Agreement
TPA	Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth)
TPP	Transnational Public Policy
UNCITRAL	United Nations Commission on International Trade Law
UNCTAD	United Nations Conference on Trade and Development
UNITAR	United Nations Institute for Training and Research
UNTS	United Nations Treaty Series
UR	UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules 1976 (revised 2010)
WTO	World Trade Organization