

Index

- Adversarial bargaining 101
- Adversarial pluralism 97
- Adverse action
  - Barclay Case* 163, 170–5, 180, 181
  - BHP Coal Case* 163, 164, 175–7, 180, 181
  - cause/reason distinction 170–2
  - dismissal
    - dishonesty allegations 177–8
    - industrial activity 175–7
    - offensive, abusive language 175–7, 181
    - subjective reason 170–80
    - union member 165–72
    - unpredictable absences 178
  - FWO proceedings 19
  - general protections 12, 18, 162–80
    - purpose and policy 173–4
    - workplace rights, protecting 164, 180
  - mens rea* 171
  - Pearce Case* 165–70
  - reversed onus of proof 172–3, 179
  - subjective reason for conduct 170–80
  - victimisation 18, 163
- Aged Care Case* 215–18, 226
- Agreement ballot 10–11, 144–8
  - access period before 144–5
  - access to agreement before 145–7
    - all reasonable steps to ensure 145, 147
    - copies to employees 11, 145
    - explanation of terms 146–7
  - multi-enterprise agreements 138
  - notice of time and place 11, 145
  - procedure 10–11, 144–8
  - single-enterprise agreements 138
  - time for holding 10, 144
  - voting process 11, 147–8
    - explanation to employees 147
- ALDI* litigation 155–7, 160
- Andrias, Kate 270–1
- Arbitration
  - breaches of bargaining orders 65, 119
  - ‘compulsory’ conciliation and arbitration system 13, 25–7
  - FW Act, under 118–20
  - industrial action termination leading to 16–17

- intractable bargaining disputes 17
  - legislative threshold for FWC intervention 119
  - low-paid authorisation, in relation to 119
  - negotiating parties agreeing to 119
  - non-consensual 119
- Attitudinal structuring 99
- Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC)
  - anti-unionism 188
  - compulsory examination powers 191
  - contentiousness 182, 189
  - discretion 190
  - enforcement approach 191
  - Fair Work Building and Construction (FWBC) 189, 190, 195
  - FWO compared 191
  - Interim Building Industry Taskforce replaced by 185, 189
  - litigation policy 191
  - mixed functions assigned to 192–4
  - original form 189
  - public interest in enforcement 19, 191, 192
    - relative values of interests 194
    - unlawful industrial activity 194, 199
  - purpose 189
  - re-establishment 190
  - underpayments, detecting 192
  - unlawful industrial activity, policing 18, 19, 194
    - public interest 18, 194, 199
- Australian Constitution
  - conciliation and arbitration power 2, 25, 142
  - corporations power 2, 237
  - individual rights supported by 236–7
- Australian labour law
  - Fair Work Act see Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth)
  - history 1–3, 13, 25–30, 141
    - ‘compulsory’ conciliation and arbitration 13, 25–7, 29
    - Industrial Relations Reform Act 1993 2, 29, 50, 141
    - Work Choices see Work Choices
    - Workplace Relations Act 1996 2, 141, 162
  - ideology, individualisation and the State 238–49
    - collective bargaining 238–45
    - individual labour rights 245–9
  - individualism 20, 230, 231–3
  - neo-liberalism 251
  - North American law compared 251–73
  - UK/EU law compared 20–1, 45, 228–50
- Australian Manufacturing Workers’ Union (AMWU)
  - Cochlear Case* 47–51, 53–9, 63–7
  - News Corp Case* 113
  - Orora Case* 113
  - ResMed Case* 47–51, 60–7

- Australian Workplace Agreements (AWAs) 2, 3, 50, 138, 141, 142
- Ayres, Tim 56
- Ballot
  - agreement, to approve see Agreement ballot
  - protected action see Protected action ballot
- Barclay Case* 163, 170–5, 180, 181
- Barenberg, Mark 271
- Bargaining see also Collective bargaining; Negotiations
  - adversarial 101
  - distributive 94, 97, 99–101
  - good faith see Good faith bargaining (GFB)
  - integrative 16, 94, 95, 99–103
  - interest-based (IBB) 16, 102
  - intra-organizational 99
  - mutual gains (MGB) 16, 94, 95
  - types of 98–103
- Bargaining centralisation 271
- Bargaining disputes 9–10, 16
  - application to FWC to deal with 10, 31, 104
  - Cochlear 14, 35, 46–7
  - FWC dealing with 10, 16
  - industrial action 9–10, 16
  - ResMed 14, 35, 46–7
  - third party assistance 10
- Bargaining fatigue 10
- Bargaining orders 9, 14, 37–9
  - applications to FWC 104
  - arbitration where serious breach of 65, 119
  - bargaining representative, application by 74, 80
  - breach 37–8, 65
  - bringing employer to bargaining table 31, 37
  - facilitating bargaining 33
  - GFB obligations, failure to meet 9, 14, 37, 104
  - serious breach declaration 37, 38
- Bargaining periods (pre-2009) 29–30
- Bargaining related workplace determination
  - breach of bargaining order 37, 38
  - breach of GFB requirements 9, 34
- Bargaining representatives 8, 15, 69–90
  - alternative 15
  - application to FWC to deal with dispute 10, 31
  - appointment 71–2, 81, 87
  - bargaining by 8, 15
  - bargaining order application by 74, 80
  - bargaining services fees 79–80
  - decision by employee to act as 81
  - default representative 71
  - employee voice 86–7
  - employer request to nominate 75, 88

- freedom of association and 84–6
- FWC cases 75–6, 88–92
- GFB obligations and 73, 76–7, 104
- imbalance of power 88
- importance of representation 84–6
- independence 78–9
- individual employees 72
- nomination forms 75–6, 88–9
- Notice of Employee Representational Rights (NERR) 15, 73, 74–6, 88–90, 144
- PABO application by 74
- payment of 79–84, 259
  - bargaining services fees 79–80
  - co-workers, by 81, 82
  - employer, by 83
  - free-riders 79
  - no general obligation 81
  - payroll deduction 81
- regulation of conduct 8
- representation notices 8
- representation rights 70–1
- representational bargaining 253–4, 271–2
- role of 69–70
- self-appointed 71, 72, 81, 87
- status of 73–8
- unions as 6, 71, 142
- unregistered employee associations as 72, 73
- who may be 71, 72
- Benson, Griffin and Smith 194–5
- Better off overall test (BOOT) 11–12, 144, 211, 225–6
  - agreements failing to pass 23
  - agreements required to pass 144
  - low-paid workers 211–13, 225–6
- Modern Awards and 226
- NES and 226
- retail and fast food franchise workers 20, 211–12
- Senate Penalty Rates Inquiry (2017) 226
- single-interest employer authorisation process 20, 213
- BHP Coal Case* 163, 164, 175–7, 180, 181
- Booth, Anna 112
- Building and construction industry
  - ABCC see Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC)
  - Code for the Tendering and Performance of Building Work 2016 190, 202–3
  - Fair Work Building and Construction (FWBC) 189, 190, 195
  - Interim Building Industry Taskforce 185, 188–9
  - unlawful industrial activity, policing 18, 19, 194
    - efficacy of existing regime 200–4
    - public interest 19, 194, 199
    - regulatory measures 201–4

- Canada see North American labour law
- Certified agreements 141
- Cochlear case study 14, 46–50, 53–9, 63–7
  - AMWU and 47–51, 53–9, 63–7
  - anti-unionism, whether 46, 63
  - background 47–50, 53
  - bargaining protocols 55
    - repudiation of 55, 57
  - breach of FWA Act 57
  - issues with FW Bill 53
  - MSD 14, 35, 46, 53–5
  - nature of company 47
  - negotiations 55–8
  - spatial context 48
  - surface bargaining 59
  - survey of employees 54
- Coercion
  - FW Act prohibition 12
  - FWO proceedings 19
  - industrial 14, 29–33
- Collaborative pluralism 98
- Collective bargaining
  - acquisition of bargaining rights 258
  - adversarial 101
  - bargaining centralisation 271
  - capitalism as contextual frame 254, 255
  - certified agreements 141
  - conceptual map 252–7
  - cooperative 15, 94–116
  - definition 140
  - distributive 94, 97, 99–101
  - elements of 252
  - employee voice 86–7
  - employers avoiding 47
  - enterprise agreements see Enterprise agreements
  - enterprise bargaining 141
  - enterprise flexibility agreements 141
  - freedom of association and 8, 84–6, 140, 162–5, 257
  - freedom of contract 25, 257
  - functional problems, resolving 257–66
  - FWA model see Fair Work Act collective bargaining model
  - FWC power to influence or direct 103
  - good faith see Good faith bargaining (GFB)
  - history in Australia 1–3, 13, 25–30, 141
    - ‘compulsory’ conciliation and arbitration 13, 25–7, 29
    - Industrial Relations Reform Act 1993 2, 29, 50, 141
    - initiation of negotiations 29–30
    - Work Choices 1, 2, 18, 50, 93, 141–2, 257, 272
    - Workplace Relations Act 1996 2, 141, 162

- ILO Conventions on 140
- individual bargaining 252–3
- individualism 20, 230, 231–3
- integrative 16, 94, 95, 99–103
- interest-based bargaining (IBB) 16, 102
- law as contextual frame 254–5
- levels of bargaining 252–4
- low-paid workers see Low-paid workers
- majoritarian exclusivity 261
- minimum standards laws and 253, 256
- mutual gains bargaining (MGB) 16, 94, 95
- pluralist view 97
- regulatory unionism 254, 257
- representation see Representation
- representational bargaining 253–4, 257–61, 271–2
- representatives see Bargaining representatives
- ‘true’ collective bargaining 27
  - departure from 27–8
- types of bargaining 98–103
- UK/EU labour law 238–45
- unions, function of 252, 256
- unitarist view 96–7
- voluntary 117, 135, 262–3
- wage setting 252
- Wagner Act Model (WAM) 252, 258–66
  - acquisition of bargaining rights 258
  - coordination problems 261
  - determining majority support 259
  - difference between US and Canadian models 259
  - history of 267–72
  - industrial action 264–6
  - representational bargaining 258–61, 271–2
  - union dues 259
  - unions under 254
- Cooperation 15, 94–116
  - collaborative pluralism 98
  - GFB provisions and 93, 104–9
  - integrative bargaining 16, 94, 95, 99
  - labour-management partnerships 98
  - mutual gains bargaining (MGB) 16, 94, 95
  - New Approaches Program 15–16, 110–16
  - pluralist view 97–8
  - types 96–8
  - union-management partnerships 98
  - unitarist view 96–7
- Dimick, Matthew 271
- Distributive bargaining 94, 97, 99–101
  - adversarial 101
  - definition 100

- Distributive bargaining (cont)
  - outcomes 100
  - process 100, 101
  - 'traditional' bargaining 101
- Employee voice 86–7
- Employer-controlled agreement making 148–59
  - small voting cohorts 17, 149–59
- Enterprise agreements
  - approval by FWC 6, 11–12, 17, 263
    - preconditions 17, 143–8, 159
    - without requiring bargaining 263
  - approval by informed consent 139
  - ballot to approve 10–11, 138, 144–8
  - bargaining 8–10
  - better off overall test (BOOT) 11–12, 144, 211–13, 225–6
  - content requirements 5
  - decline in number being made 139
  - employee voice 86–7
  - employer and employees, between 5, 138, 142
  - employer-controlled agreement making 148–59
  - enterprise bargaining 141
  - genuine agreement 144, 159, 160
  - greenfields agreements see Greenfields agreements
  - hybrid agreement-making regime 139
  - joint authorship of terms 159
  - multi-enterprise 5, 138, 143
  - negotiations see Negotiations
  - nominal expiry date 130
    - application for termination after 120
    - industrial action after 118, 130
    - PABO application before 40
  - number registered 22
  - pre-approval requirements 17, 143–8, 159
  - pre-commitment clause 41
  - process for making 139
  - single-enterprise 5, 138, 143
  - small cohort agreement-making 17, 149–59
  - statistics on 22
  - termination see Termination of agreement
  - unions not party to 6, 138
  - when 'made' 6
- Enterprise flexibility agreements (EFAs) 141
- Equal remuneration
  - early childhood educators 224
  - FW Act provisions 222–5
  - gender-based undervaluation 224
  - orders 20, 222
  - social care sector 222–4

- Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth)
  - arbitration under 118–20
  - background 1–3
  - collective bargaining model see Fair Work Act collective bargaining model
  - equal remuneration provisions 222–5
  - general protections 18, 73, 162–81, 248
    - adverse action, against see Adverse action
    - bargaining representatives and 73, 77–8
    - purpose and policy 173–4
  - low-paid workers and 206, 208–27
  - Modern Awards see Modern Awards
  - NES see National Employment Standards (NES)
  - objectives 93–4, 138
  - reviews 4, 210
  - shifting regulatory paradigms 235–7
  - TCF outworker provisions 20, 206, 218–20, 226
- Fair Work Act collective bargaining model
  - access to bargaining table 28
  - agreeing to negotiate 29
  - attenuated character 29
  - bargaining 8–10
  - better off overall test (BOOT) 11–12, 20, 144, 211–13, 225–6
  - departure from ‘true’ collective bargaining 27–8
  - enterprise agreements see Enterprise agreements
  - fair and balanced bargaining framework 138
  - fragmented bargaining 228
  - good faith bargaining see Good faith bargaining (GFB)
  - ideology, individualisation and the State 238–45
  - individualism 20, 230, 231–3
  - industrial action 9–10
  - low-paid workers see Low-paid workers
  - MSDs see Majority support determinations (MSDs)
  - multi-representative model 261, 262
  - negotiations see Negotiations
  - North American model compared 251–73
  - overview 1, 4–12, 117
  - ‘re-collectivising’ the system 138
  - representation rights 70–1
  - UK system compared 228–50
  - unions, role of 6, 22, 138–9
  - usefulness of 23
  - voluntary bargaining 117, 135, 262
  - vulnerable workers see Vulnerable workers
  - Wagner Act Model (WAM) compared 252–66
- Fair Work Commission (FWC)
  - application for assistance of 10, 39, 103
  - approval of agreements 6, 11–12, 17, 263
    - preconditions 17, 143–8, 159
    - without requiring bargaining 263

- Fair Work Commission (FWC) (cont)
- bargaining orders 9, 14, 37–9
  - bargaining representative cases 75–6, 88–92
  - dealing with disputes 10, 16, 39
  - equal remuneration orders 20, 222
  - facilitating bargaining 33, 39
  - legislative threshold for intervention by 119
  - New Approaches Program 15–16, 110–16
  - power to influence or direct bargaining 103
  - role of 4, 103
  - termination of agreement 130–6
  - termination of industrial action 9, 16, 120–9
- Fair Work Ombudsman (FWO) 5, 18–19, 186–8
- ABCC compared 191
  - Compliance and Enforcement Policy 186–7
  - contentiousness 182
  - initiation of inquiries 187
  - Litigation Policy 187, 191
  - matters against unions 19
  - mixed functions assigned to 192–4
  - public interest in enforcement 187, 188, 192–200
    - NUW litigation 196–7
    - Qantas litigation 197–8
    - relative values of interests 194
    - unlawful industrial activity 19, 194–200
  - purpose 186
  - role of 12, 18, 186, 248
  - unions and 188
  - unlawful industrial activity, policing 18, 19, 187, 194–200
    - efficacy of existing regime 200–4
    - public interest 19, 194–200
    - regulatory measures 201–4
  - vulnerable workers, protecting 187–8, 247
- Fisher and Ury 101–2
- Freedom of association 140, 162–5
- adverse action, protection from 164–81
  - Barclay Case* 163
  - bargaining representatives and 84–6
  - BHP Coal Case* 163, 164
  - collective bargaining and 8, 84–6, 140, 162, 257
  - dismissal for union membership 165–70
  - freely concluded collective agreements 84
  - ILO Freedom of Association Committee 84, 198
  - protection of 12, 18, 163–5
- Freedom of contract 25, 257
- General protections 18, 162–81, 248
- adverse action, against see Adverse action
  - balancing of interests 181
  - bargaining representatives and 73, 77–8

- purpose and policy 173–4
- UK law compared 248–9
- victimisation, against 18, 163
- workplace rights, protecting 164, 180
- Good faith bargaining (GFB) 8–9, 93–4, 104–9
  - abuse and intimidation 107
  - ballots and 10, 15
  - bargaining orders 9, 14, 104
  - bargaining representatives and 73, 76–7, 104
  - breach of requirements 9, 10, 34, 264
  - bringing employer to bargaining table 31
  - employer obligations 50
  - functional issues 257
  - FW Act model 3, 8–9, 12, 94
    - cooperation, promoting 93, 115
    - s 228 requirements 94
  - FWC decisions on 104–9
  - hard bargaining 8, 105
  - industrial action, whether breaches 106
  - limitations 14, 42
  - majority support determination (MSD) and 34, 52
  - nebulous concept 42
  - New Approaches compared 114, 115
  - ‘robust’ behaviour 106–7
  - serious breach declaration 9, 34
  - surface bargaining not permitted 8, 59, 106
  - UK recognition procedure compared 238
- Government industrial relations agencies
  - ABCC see Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC)
  - coercive court-based sanctions 183
  - enforcing anti-strike provisions 182–3
  - FWO see Fair Work Ombudsman (FWO)
  - history of federal agencies 183–6
    - Arbitration Inspectorate 183
    - Fair Work Building and Construction (FWBC) 189, 190, 195
    - Industrial Relations Bureau (IRB) 184
    - Interim Building Industry Taskforce 185, 188–9
    - Office of the Employment Advocate (OEA) 185
    - Office of Workplace Services (OWS) 185
    - Workplace Ombudsman (WO) 186
  - mixed functions assigned to 192–4
  - Registered Organisations Commission 204
  - underpayments, recovering 182, 185, 192
- Greenfields agreements, 138, 139, 149
  - bargaining disputes 10
  - definition 5, 143
  - employer greenfields agreements 142
  - employers and unions, between 139, 143, 149
  - Fair Work Act model 3, 5, 17, 138

- Greenfields agreements (cont)
  - genuine agreement 150, 159, 160
  - greenfields negotiation period 150, 160
  - legislative amendments marginalising 139
  - small voting cohorts 17, 149–54, 160
  - when ‘made’ 6
- Hayter and Weinberg 256
- Hunter Model 110
- Individualism 20, 230, 231–3, 240
- Industrial action
  - applications to FWC to stop 104
  - deadlocked negotiations
    - escalating into industrial action 16–17, 128–9
    - termination of industrial action 17, 128
  - employer response 9, 118–19
  - FW Act restrictions 265–6
  - genuine attempt to reach agreement 266
  - GFB obligation, whether breaches 106
  - immunity from dismissal for 164–5
  - lockout 9, 28, 119, 126
  - negotiations, in support of 9–10, 118–19
  - nominal expiry date of agreement, after 118, 130
  - North American law 264–5
  - picketing 175, 266
  - procedural requirements 266
  - protected action 9, 16
    - ballot order (PABO) 31–3, 40, 164
    - bringing employer to bargaining table 31
    - limited capacity to take 29
    - right to take 28, 50, 164, 266
  - suspension 9, 120, 121
    - choice between termination or 121
  - termination see Termination of industrial action
  - ‘true’ collective bargaining, departure from 27
  - unprotected 10
  - WAM regime 264–5
  - workplace determinations 16
- Industrial activity
  - adverse action due to 164–77
  - definition 164
  - freedom of association 162–5
  - offensive language, use of 175–7
  - right to take part in 164, 198
  - unlawful, policing 18–19, 194–204
    - ABCC 18, 19, 194, 199
    - efficacy of existing regime 200–4
    - FWO 18–19, 187, 194–200
    - public interest 19, 194–200
    - regulatory measures 201–4

- victimisation on grounds of 163
- Industrial coercion 14, 29–33
- Industrial Relations Bureau (IRB) 184
- Integrative bargaining 16, 94, 95, 99–103
  - definition 101
  - outcomes 100
  - process 100, 101
- Interest-based bargaining (IBB) 16, 102
- Interest-based negotiation (IBN) 16, 102
- International Labour Organization (ILO)
  - agreement making in Australia, view on 70, 84
  - Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining Convention 140
  - Freedom of Association Committee 84, 198
  - Labour Inspection Convention 192
  - public interest in enforcement 192
  - Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention 140
  - standards 15, 117
- Labour hire agreements
  - Carlton and United Breweries Case* 158–9
  - consumer boycott, use of 158, 159
  - small voting cohorts 154–7
- Low-paid authorisations 7–8, 19, 214–17
  - applications 214–17
  - compelling employer to bargain 31
  - facilitating bargaining 8, 14
  - FCW may make 214
  - ‘low paid’ not defined 215, 216
  - notification time trigger 7, 33
- Low-paid bargaining stream 3, 7, 19, 213–18, 241
- Low-paid workers
  - access to collective bargaining 19, 206–27
    - whether improved under FW Act 225–7
  - Aged Care Case* 215–18, 226
  - better off overall test (BOOT) 211–13, 225–6
    - retail and fast food franchises 20, 211–12
    - single-interest employer authorisation process 20, 213
  - decline in agreement coverage 209
  - enterprise agreement coverage 210–13
  - equal remuneration 222–5
  - Fair Work Act, under 206, 208–27
    - failure to realise potential of 217
    - increase in workers outside scope of 209
  - Industrial Relations Reform Act 1993 207
  - low-paid authorisations 7–8, 14, 19, 214–17
    - compelling employer to bargain 14, 31
    - notification time trigger 7, 33
  - low-paid bargaining stream 3, 7, 19, 213–18, 241
  - ‘low paid’ not defined 215, 216
  - minimum wage 210

Low-paid workers (cont)

- Modern Awards 206, 207, 208, 215, 222, 225
- multi-employer bargaining 19
- National Employment Standards (NES) 206, 208, 222, 225
- outside collective bargaining coverage 209
- retail and fast food franchises 20, 211–12
- Road Safety Remuneration Tribunal (RSRT) 20, 207, 220–1
- safety net 222
- social care sector 222–4
- textile, clothing and footwear (TCF) outworkers 206, 218–20, 226
- Work Choices and 206

Lyons, Tim 109

- Majority support determinations (MSDs) 7, 33–5, 45, 51–65, 263–4
  - applications to FWC for 51, 104
  - Cochlear dispute 35, 46, 53–5
  - compelling employer to bargain 14, 31, 52, 263, 264
  - effect 34–5, 52
  - facilitating bargaining 14, 33, 42
  - failure to negotiate in face of 34
  - Fair Work Act model 3, 7, 12, 51, 263
  - good faith bargaining and 34, 52
  - notification time trigger 7, 33, 34
  - rationale 33
  - requirements for 7
  - ResMed dispute 14, 35, 46, 61–5
  - UK recognition process compared 7
  - US system compared 22, 45–6, 52, 264

Mandated outcomes 33, 36, 37

McManus, Sally 194, 198

Modern Awards

- bargaining not to undermine 226
- contracting out not permitted 5
- enterprise agreement may improve upon 5
- Fair Work Act model 4–5
- four-yearly reviews 222
- individual labour rights 245
- low-paid workers and 206, 207, 208, 215, 222, 225
- minimum employment conditions 4, 236
- quasi-legislative effect 4
- reversion to 228
- statutory safety net 4, 222
- termination of agreement, minimum terms after 130

Multi-enterprise agreements 5, 138, 143

Mutual gains bargaining (MGB) 16, 94, 95

- integrative bargaining becoming 102

National Employment Standards (NES)

- bargaining not to undermine 226
- contracting out not permitted 4
- individual labour rights 245

- low-paid workers and 206, 208, 222, 225
- minimum employment conditions 4, 236
- reversion to 228
- statutory safety net 4, 222
- termination of agreement, minimum terms after 130
- Negotiations
  - bargaining periods (former) 29–30
  - bargaining representatives see Bargaining representatives
  - deadlocked
    - escalating into industrial action 16–17, 128–9
    - termination of industrial action 17, 128
    - termination of old agreement 134, 136
  - employees' capacity to bring employer to table 31–44
  - employer agreeing to negotiate 29, 31
  - employer initiating 29–33
  - enterprise agreements for 6–9
  - former systems 29–30
  - good faith see Good faith bargaining (GFB)
  - industrial action in support of 9–10, 118–19
  - industrial coercion 29–33
  - initiation of 29
  - interest-based (IBN) 16, 102
  - negotiating period 6
  - Notice of Employee Representational Rights (NERR) 15, 73, 74–60, 144
  - notification time 6, 7, 33
    - PABO, prerequisite for 40
    - triggers 7, 33, 34, 36
  - termination of old agreement during 131–4
  - time period 9
  - traditional conciliation and arbitration system 29
  - Wagner Act Model (WAM) 262–3
- New Approaches Program 15–16, 110–16
  - background 109
  - GFB compared 114, 115
  - News Corp case study 111, 113
  - Orora case study 111, 112–13
  - services offered 111
  - Sydney Water case study 111, 112
- Nicholson, Pekarek and Gahan 272
- North American labour law
  - Australian law compared 21–2, 45, 65, 251–73
  - bargaining centralisation 271
  - Fair Work Act reforms based on 3
  - industrial action 264–6
  - integrative bargaining 102
  - neo-liberalism 251, 255
  - recognition of unions 14, 46
  - unfair labour practices (ULPs) 259

- North American labour law (cont)
  - union busting 14, 45–6, 65
  - unionisation rates 269
- Wagner Act Model (WAM) 252, 258
  - acquisition of bargaining rights 258
  - certification of agreements 262, 264
  - coordination problems 261
  - determining majority support 259
  - difference between US and Canada 259, 267
  - FW Act compared 251–73
  - history of 267–72
  - industrial action 264–6
  - negotiation of agreements 262–3
  - representational bargaining 258–61, 271–2
  - union dues 259
  - unions under 254, 267
- Notice of Employee Representational Rights (NERR) 15, 73, 74–6, 88–90
  - ballot to approve agreement after 144
  - interference with process 89–90
  - representative nomination forms 75–6, 88–9
- Notification time 6, 7, 33
  - low-paid authorisation made 7, 33
  - MSD made 7, 33, 34
  - PABO, prerequisite for 40
  - scope order made 7, 33, 36
  - triggers 7, 33
- Orora case study 111, 112–13
- Overview of book 12–22
- Pluralists 97–8
  - adversarial pluralism 97
  - collaborative pluralism 98
  - view of collective bargaining 97–8
- Pre-commitment 40–1
  - clause 41
  - facilitating bargaining 14, 42
- Protected action ballot
  - order (PABO) 31–3
    - application before nominal expiry date 40
    - bargaining representative may apply 74
    - genuinely trying to reach agreement 266
  - right to take part in 164
  - time between order and declaration of 40
- Public interest
  - concept of 19, 195
  - enforcement, in 19, 192–200
    - ABCC 191, 194, 199
    - FWO 187, 188, 192–200
    - ILO 192
  - relative values of interests 194

- unlawful industrial activity 19, 194–200
- termination of industrial action 16, 125–9
- Qantas dispute 16, 106, 126–7, 129, 135–6
- Representation
  - bargaining representatives see Bargaining representatives
  - free-riders 79
  - importance for collective bargaining 84–6
  - Notice of Employee Representational Rights (NERR) 15, 73, 74–6, 88–9, 144
  - payment for 79–84, 259
  - representational bargaining 253–4, 257–61, 271–2
  - right to 70–1, 84
  - Wagner Act Model (WAM) 258
    - FW Act compared 260
    - union dues 259
- ResMed case study 14, 46–51, 60–7
  - AMWU and 47–51, 60–7
  - anti-unionism, whether 46, 63
  - background 47–50, 60
  - MSD 35, 46, 61–5
  - nature of company 47, 60
  - prerogative relief application 62
  - spatial context 48
- Road transport industry
  - minimum conditions for drivers 220
  - onerous and unnecessary compliance burdens 221
  - road safety remuneration orders 221
  - Road Safety Remuneration Tribunal (RSRT) 20, 207, 220–1
  - ‘Safe Rates’ campaign 220
- Roberts, Chris 54, 63–4, 67
- Ross, Justice Iain 110, 111, 112
- Scope orders 7, 35–6
  - applications to FWC for 104
  - bringing employer to bargaining table 31
  - effect 36
  - facilitating bargaining 14, 31, 35
  - Fair Work Act model 3, 12, 14
  - notice of concerns 36
  - notification time trigger 7, 33, 36
  - prerequisites 36
- Serious breach declaration
  - breach of bargaining order 37, 38
  - breach of GFB requirements 9, 34
- Single-enterprise agreements 5, 138, 143
  - ballot to approve 10–11, 138, 144–8
  - bargaining disputes 10
  - employer and employees, between 5, 138, 142
  - greenfields site 149–54, 160
    - small voting cohorts 17, 149–54, 160
  - pre-approval requirements 143–8, 159

- Small voting cohorts 17, 149–60
  - labour hire agreements 157–9
  - new enterprises 149–54
  - single-enterprise agreement for greenfields site 149, 160
  - vulnerable employees 154–7, 160
- Social and community services (SACS) industry
  - equal remuneration order 222–4
  - weak bargaining power 222
- Stanford, Jim 272
- Stutchbury, Michael 53
- Surface bargaining 8, 59, 106
- Sydney Water case study 111, 112
- Tarrant, Louise 224
- Termination of agreement 130–6
  - applications 120, 130–1, 137
    - employer, by 130, 132
    - one party 131
    - unilateral 130
  - appropriateness 132
  - bargaining power, impact on 131
  - changing negotiating positions of parties 135
  - deadlocked negotiations 134, 136
  - effect 130
  - FWC order for 130
  - minimum employment terms after 130
  - negotiations for new agreement, during 131–4
  - nominal expiry date 130
    - application after 120
  - quasi-arbitration power 244
- Termination of industrial action 9, 16, 120–9
  - applications for 104
  - arbitrations, leading to 16–17
  - choice between suspension or 121
  - danger to life, safety, health or welfare 125–9
    - applications on ground of 16, 125
  - deadlocked negotiations 17, 128
  - effect 120
  - FWC, by 9–10, 16–17, 120–9
  - grounds 16, 120
  - post-industrial action negotiating period 120
  - public interest 16, 125–9
  - Qantas dispute 16, 106, 126–7, 129, 135–6
  - quasi-arbitration power 244
  - significant economic harm to parties 121–5
    - applications on ground of 16, 123
    - protracted negotiations 124
    - relevant factors 122
  - unlawful action 10
  - unprotected action 10

- Textile, clothing and footwear (TCF) outworkers
  - access to collective bargaining 218–20
  - FW Act provisions 20, 206, 218–20, 226
- Trade unions see Unions
- Undue influence
  - FW Act prohibition 12
- Union busting (US) 14, 45–6, 65
- Unions
  - AMWU see Australian Manufacturing Workers' Union (AMWU)
  - anti-unionism 14, 45, 63, 188
    - UK 237, 239
    - US union busting 14, 45–6, 65
  - Australian approach 45, 51
  - bargaining representatives see Bargaining representatives
  - collective bargaining, function in 252
    - regulatory unionism 254
    - representational bargaining 253
  - decline in membership levels 22
  - de-unionisation 45
  - employer tactics to undermine 51
  - enterprise agreements
    - agreement to be bound by 6, 138
    - enforcing 6
    - not party to 6, 138
  - Fair Work model, role in 6, 22, 142
  - FWO proceedings and 188
  - greenfields agreements between employers and 139
  - individualism and 240
  - majority support determinations (MSDs) 4, 7
  - recognition (UK) 14, 45, 46, 234–5
    - statutory recognition procedure (SRP) 235, 238–40
  - traditional conciliation and arbitration system 29
  - unitarist management and 96
  - unlawful industrial activity, policing 194–204
- Unitarists 96–7
- United Kingdom/EU labour law 20, 228–50
  - Advisory Conciliation and Arbitration Service 109
  - anti-unionism 237, 239
  - Australian law compared 20–1, 45, 228–50
  - Brexit 229, 230
  - collective bargaining 238–45
  - European Convention on Human Rights 229
  - general protections compared 248–9
  - ideology, individualisation and the State 238–49
  - individual labour rights 245–9
  - individualism 20, 230, 231–3, 240
  - influence of EU law 229
  - recognition of unions 14, 45, 46, 234–5
    - GFB compared 238

- United Kingdom/EU labour law (cont)
  - statutory recognition procedure (SRP) 235, 238–40
  - shifting regulatory paradigms 233–5
- United States see North American labour law
- United Voice 224–5
- Victimisation
  - general protections 18, 163
  - union activity, on grounds of 163
- Visser, Hayter and Gammarano 256
- Voluntary bargaining 117, 135, 262–3
- Vulnerable workers see also Low-paid workers
  - ALDI decision 155–7, 160
  - equal remuneration orders 20, 222–5
  - FWO protecting 187–8, 247
  - Road Safety Remuneration Tribunal (RSRT) 20, 207, 220–1
  - small voting cohorts 154–7, 160
  - social care sector 222–4
  - textile, clothing and footwear (TCF) outworkers 206, 218–20, 226
  - weak bargaining position 154, 222
- Wage stagnation 23
- Wagner Act Model see North American labour law
- Walton & McKersie 98–102
- Weiler, Paul 269
- Work Choices reforms
  - Australian Workplace Agreements (AWAs) 2, 3, 50, 138, 141, 142
  - collective bargaining 1, 2, 18, 50, 93, 141–2, 236, 257, 273
  - employer greenfields agreements 142
  - FW Act compared 272
  - government enforcement policy 18, 185
  - low-paid workers 206
  - managerial unilateralism 141
  - no disadvantage test 2, 141
  - union and non-union agreements 2, 50
- Workplace determinations 119
  - bargaining related
    - breach of bargaining order 37, 38, 119
    - breach of GFB requirements 9, 34
  - industrial action related 16, 119
- Workplace rights
  - Constitution supporting 236–7
  - definition 164
  - general protections 12, 18, 164–81, 248
  - individual rights 245–9
  - ‘Your Rights at Work’ campaign 237